

Answer: The Holy Prophet (PUBH) worked as a laborer during the construction of the Nabwi Mosque and while digging a trench (In. Ghazwa-e-Khandak). V. I. Dal cites the following entry: "In India, they call a pit into which rubbish and stones are thrown. When it is dug, it becomes completely black and is called 'pubhâ', and sometimes 'jarâ', 'jar', if not, then 'pubh' unbelievers] a painful punishment. 0.65. And in the dwelling [of the unbelievers] - gnashing of teeth and cries; 0.66. and those who disbelieved [hear] from behind the veil, 0.67. and they proclaim [about what awaits them], 0.68. and then they fall into despair. 0.69. And when they are instilled with fear and forced to flee, they [fly], 0.61. and those [infidels] in the valley . 0.62. and those who did not believe and did not follow the straight path.
